CAMPBELL HIGH SCHOOL THEATRE PROUDLY PRESENTS

Antigone

Originally written by: Sophocles

DIRECTOR'S Note

SOMETHING OLD and SOMETHING New

I'd like to start with extending a heartfelt thank you to all of you who have welcomed me to Campbell High School. It is an honor to work with Mrs. Williams, the Campbell High Booster Club, and all our talented students. This year marks my twentieth year as a theatre teacher and I couldn't have landed in a better place.

In rehearsal I tried to remind students that Antigone is an ancient story. It is in fact one of the oldest plays we have, written during the emergence of theatre as an artform. Countless performers have told this story, countless audiences have watched it, and I felt that the history of the story brings with it a weight and responsibility that few other plays offer. This particular adaptation of Antigone, which was originally written by Sophocles, was adapted and performed by the students of Winthrop High School Drama Society in 2017. That performance won this group the Massachusetts State One Act Championship. I discovered this adaptation of this ancient play in the most modern places: YouTube where a video of their performance has over 32,000 views.
